

Sharon Fitz-Coy Memorial Award

$500 Scholarship for UF student pursuing natural sciences with a heart for youth

Sharon Fitz-Coy dedicated her life to family and community. She made lasting impacts on countless youth through the Fishing for Success program at the University's Institute of Food and Agricultural Sciences.

Sharon's family, friends and colleagues created this scholarship endowment to recognize and support students who demonstrate her passion for making a difference for youth in their communities.

Are you a UF student pursuing a degree in a natural science field? Do you have a passion for and involvement in volunteer service that impacts youth? If you answered YES to both of these questions, you are encouraged to apply for the Sharon Fitz-Coy Memorial Award.

Application

First Name

Last Name

UFID

College/School

Degree/Major

Current Mailing Address

Hours Current Semester

UF Hours Completed

UF GPA

List any relevant student activities/employment (provide years):

What are your career goals?

Volunteer Service: Describe your involvement in volunteer activities impacting youth, both past and current (provide years of service). Explain why volunteering is important to you.

How would this scholarship benefit you?

Save as "FitzCoy2017_Yourlastname" and email to Dr. Tim Martin (tamartin@ufl.edu) by Friday, September 15, 2017